A morning to care for our park

Burgess Park is one of South London's most treasured green spaces - a place where neighbours gather to enjoy nature, exercise, and spend time with friends and family. To ensure that this park stays clean, welcoming, and safe for everyone, we all need to do our part.

That's why Cultural Artist Community Salay UK invites you to take part in a hands-on community clean-up event on Saturday, 21st June 2025. Our focus will be on removing small litter items, especially the beer bottle tops that have become embedded in the grass. This simple task will help protect local wildlife and improve the park for all visitors.

Meeting point and plan for the morning

We will meet at the recreation area behind the laundry and cafe - the same green space that hosts summer festivals and family gatherings - before setting out together. Gloves and bags will be provided so everyone can help in a safe and practical way.

Our route will take us across this central area and into other nearby spots in need of attention. The paths are mostly level and smooth, making this walk suitable for all ages, including pushchairs and wheelchairs.

A simple action with a big impact

By spending just a few hours together, we can make a real difference. Picking up litter - especially bottle tops - is a small action that benefits local birds and small animals, while keeping the park looking its best.

When we finish around midday, we will take some time to chat and reflect on what we have achieved together. Group photographs will also be taken to celebrate the event (with participants' consent).

Everyone is welcome

This clean-up is open to everyone - whether you come alone, with family, or with friends. No experience is needed, and children are very welcome. Cultural Artist Community Salay UK will be there to support you every step of the way and make sure everyone feels involved.

Join us and help care for Burgess Park - a shared space that we can all treasure.

We look forward to seeing you on Saturday, 21st June 2025 for a morning of positive action, community spirit, and connection to nature.
